NOTE: If you are applying for more than one board or commission, please reference the specific board or commission in your response to questions 4-7.

4. What motivated you to apply for this board or commission?

Post COVID-19, residents of Sunnyvale are getting back to normal life like getting back to work, school, hospitals, business, etc. Residents of Sunnyvale have renewed their priorities and have put a greater importance on work, health and life balance. Being one of the diverse and best city to live, City of Sunnyvale continued to be FIRST choice for many people, families and business !

Everyday I see more usage of parks, more bicyclists on the street and families are spending more time outdoor ! There is a large increase in residential and commercial constructions taking over some of the historic locations, and trees and landscape are disappearing posing risks to sustainability. I feel it is a responsibility of every residents to join and shape the future of City of Sunnyvale for coming years.

Above things have motivated me to actively participate in city boards and commissions to bring new and creative ideas, and influence changes for better life and health of residents of Sunnyvale. I believe in "you must be the change you want to see in the world".

Sustainability Commission

We are looking for someone who has Demonstrated interest in environmental sustainability issues

19. Sustainability is a new and emerging issue in many communities. What do you think are the primary sustainability policy issues this commission will be addressing over the next few years?

Carbon emissions and climate change issues

20. Sustainability Commissioners will need to consider social, economic and environmental issues when addressing sustainability policy issues. How does one achieve a balanced community?

Solutions should be time based as they will require adoption times to implement. These solutions need to be reasonable and consider cost and benefits to the community. There should be good support for the community to transition to new solutions. This includes information, rebates, events, and adopting solutions based on clearly defined priorities with community in mind.

Thank You for your consideration. I am looking forward to hearing from you 😊

1. Are you a currently-registered voter in Sunnyvale?

Yes No

When was the last time you voted?

Month November Year 2022

2. Are you currently serving or have you served on a City of Sunnyvale board or commission?

Yes No

If yes, which one?

Redistricting

Term currently serving

Term previously served 2021-22

3. Prior attendance at a board or commission meeting is highly desirable. Have you attended meeting(s) of the board or commission for which you are applying?

Yes No

if yes, how many meetings have you attended?

Around 10 over the years

NOTE: If you are applying for more than one board or commission, please reference the specific board or commission in your response to questions 4-7.

4. What motivated you to apply for this board or commission?

5. What skills or attributes can you bring to this board or commission?

Professionally, I work in data and analytics which allows me to ingest and understand data very quickly. I frequently discover data-driven conclusions others may not see. Otherwise, the most relevant skills and attributes I bring are order, judgement, and listening ability. I've been involved in the community and city for many years and that's taught me patience. I've learned how to listen to everyone, especially those with whom I disagree. I've learned that getting things done in the city and community requires judgement – it's always about understanding the boundaries of the possible. Finally, I conduct affairs in an efficacious and orderly manner. I chaired the Redistricting Commission which went about its work deliberately, smoothly, and on schedule.

6. The primary role of a board or commission member is to provide advice to City Council on policy issues that are within the scope of that board or commission. With this in mind, what steps would you take to effectively exercise this specific board or commission role?

The bulk of the advice given to City Council is in the decisions and deliberations that the commission produces. The minutes of the meetings and hearings will show the commission deliberating in more detail than the City Council can usually devote. On certain issues, a commissioner may need to attend city council meetings and be available for presentations and questions. Finally, commissioners, just as private citizens do, have the right to communicate with council members and the council as a whole. The Brown Act cannot be violated, but communications are still possible.

7. Education: List college degrees and majors, and any relevant training or experience that demonstrates your ability to effectively serve on this board or commission.

BA with Special Honors, Asian Studies, University of Texas at Austin

MBA, Santa Clara University

CPA

lots of professional training over the years on both "soft" (listening, communicating) and "hard" topics (tech skills, etc.)
media training

8. Briefly describe your current or last occupation.

Director, Data and Analytics, Slalom Consulting

I lead data and analytics projects at various companies in the Bay Area

9. Briefly describe what you learned by attending a meeting of the City Council, board or commission. Describe what improvements you would suggest the City consider.

What I've learned from attending numerous meetings and hearings is that the people of Sunnyvale, including its commissioners, elected officials, and staff, are very earnest and committed to doing the right thing. You can generally count on the sincerity of everyone involved. There is a small faction within the city who is perhaps not as sincere, but this faction has been beaten at the ballot box nearly every time.

The main improvement I would like to see is an acceleration in the pace of decision making and implementation. Our neighbors are making improvements more quickly than us and there's no reason we cannot at least keep pace.

10. Describe your involvement in community activities, volunteer and civic organizations.

Sunnyvale Redistricting Commission, Chair
Livable Sunnyvale, Former Chair and Board Member
Sunnyvale Metro Little League, Former Umpire in Chief, Board Member, and Manager
AYSO and Sunnyvale Alliance, Former Coach

I was also very involved in the successful effort to bring Sunnyvale into compliance with the California Voting Rights Act

11. The City has a Code of Ethics and Conduct for Elected and Appointed Officials and an Attendance Policy (7.2.19), 2.G.(II) that appointed members are required to follow. Do you have any concerns in these two areas?

Yes No

If so, please describe.

12. If an unplanned vacancy arises on the board(s) or commission(s) you are interested in, would you be willing to accept a temporary appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term or until a recruitment is held and Council officially fills the vacancy?

Yes No

17. Sunnyvale has limited vacant land for new development. This could increase pressure for redevelopment of existing developed areas. How can planning respond to this situation?

The planning commission could respond to the limited vacant land for new development in Sunnyvale by considering the following strategies:

1. Encourage infill development: The planning commission could promote infill development, which involves redeveloping underutilized or vacant lots within already developed areas. By encouraging infill development, the planning commission can increase the supply of land available for development without encroaching on undeveloped areas.
2. Redevelop brownfield sites: The planning commission could also consider redeveloping brownfield sites, which are abandoned or underutilized properties that may be contaminated with hazardous substances. By redeveloping these sites, the planning commission can address blight, create new development opportunities, and reduce pressure to develop undeveloped land.
3. Promote mixed-use development: The planning commission could encourage mixed-use development, which combines residential, commercial, and/or office space in the same building or development. By promoting mixed-use development, the planning commission can maximize land use efficiency and create more compact, walkable neighborhoods.
4. Consider zoning changes: The planning commission could review and update zoning regulations to incentivize redevelopment of existing developed areas. For example, the commission could consider allowing for increased building heights or density in certain areas to encourage redevelopment.

18. Planning Commissioners are often asked to consider social, economic and environmental issues when reviewing proposals. How does one achieve a balanced community?

Achieving a balanced community involves considering a range of social, economic, and environmental factors when making decisions about development proposals. Here are some general steps that Planning Commissioners can take to help achieve a balanced community:

1. Gather input from the community: Consult with members of the community to understand their needs and priorities.
2. Consider social factors: Look at how development proposals will impact different segments of the population, including low-income and marginalized communities. Consider issues such as access to healthcare, education, and affordable housing.
3. Consider economic factors: Look at how development proposals will impact the local economy, including job creation and tax revenue. Consider the potential impact on small businesses and the overall economic vitality of the community.
4. Consider environmental factors: Evaluate the potential impact of development proposals on the environment, including issues such as air and water quality, energy use, and natural resources.
5. Evaluate trade-offs: Consider the costs and benefits of different proposals and evaluate trade-offs between different factors, such as economic development versus environmental protection.
6. Use a comprehensive approach: Consider all three factors (social, economic, and environmental) holistically rather

NOTE: If you are applying for more than one board or commission, please reference the specific board or commission in your response to questions 4-7.

4. What motivated you to apply for this board or commission?

I want to help build a more inclusive community. Currently, I work for Sunnyvale Community Services as a Community Engagement Specialist and through my work, I have noticed that many of our residents do not share a sense of inclusion or representation. Through the board, I aspire to create projects where everybody in our community can participate and can feel they belong to this community. Sunnyvale is a multicultural city, and while it enriches our community, it requires constant work and flexibility to have all residents participate in the continuous development of their community.

5. What skills or attributes can you bring to this board or commission?

As a former international student, I believe my unique perspective on city issues and my leadership skills will contribute to this board's mission and vision. I have had the privilege of living various types of cities and countries, including developing countries like Colombia to completing my undergraduate and graduate studies in Madrid, Spain to improving my English language skills in the small town of Pittsburg, California. I have been exposed to multiple environments that have shaped my perspective of community development. Additionally, I have been able to develop further my leadership skills by understanding and assisting the needs of Sunnyvale Residents within my position. This has included executing resource fairs and events for our community and providing a bridge between under-represented populations and city resources.

Applicant Name _____

6. The primary role of a board or commission member is to provide advice to City Council on policy issues that are within the scope of that board or commission. With this in mind, what steps would you take to effectively exercise this specific board or commission role?

In order to provide adequate advice to City Council, it is essential to consider various tools and methods that support our suggestions or statements. Some of these tools include; performing case studies, interviewing Sunnyvale Residents to obtain public option, researching available data, and providing academic research to have context of policy issues.

7. Education: List college degrees and majors, and any relevant training or experience that demonstrates your ability to effectively serve on this board or commission.

1. Carlos III University, Madrid-Spain. Bachelors Degree in Journalism
2. Camilo Jose Cela University. Madrid-Spain. Master Degree in International Relations and Communication
3. Computense University, Madrid-Spain. Master Degree in International Law
3. Basquet Country University, Vitoria-Spain. Course in International Law and Interantional Relations.

8. Briefly describe your current or last occupation.

I work for Sunnyvale Community Services (SCS). I am the Community Engagement Specialist. I oversee the Community Leader program. I train leaders who assist SCS to spread out the word about our services and programs. I also work in patnership with different organizations and agencies that inform our community leaders about their programs and services so they can have the tools to guide and inform their neighbors in need about different programs and services that they can be eligible.

9. Briefly describe what you learned by attending a meeting of the City Council, board or commission. Describe what improvements you would suggest the City consider.

I would suggest a more friendly approach to the community. Most of the people who go to these meetings are intimidate or even afraid to speak and vocalized their concerns. It is very difficult to develop inclusive projects within the City of Sunnyvale if there is no meaningful input from all residents. .

I'd also adversite more this meeting, I would make more visible these meeting as an invitation to the community to participate in them and make them feel that they are the reason why the City Council, board or commision are working diligently.

Applicant Name _____

10. Describe your involvement in community activities, volunteer and civic organizations.

I work for Sunnyvale Community Services. Our mission is to prevent homelessness and hunger in Sunnyvale. We work very hard to help our neighbors in need.

Within my department I create events and projects that enrich peoples lives.

I oversees the Community Leader program. This program is formed by residents who are looking to build a better community. It is a very inclusive and equity program. The only requirement is to want to be part of a group that wants to be build a better Sunnyvale.

In partneship with Livable Sunnyvale, we oversees a program that is called Mentor program. Together we are working to raise awareness about important issues affecting people in Sunnyvale.

Human Relations Commission

We are looking for someone with community-level experience on issues related to equity, access, inclusion, and social justice

11. What do you think are major equity challenges facing the Sunnyvale community?

1. Housing is very expensive in Sunnyvale. Many people are living the city or futher out or in degrading conditons because they can not afford to pay the rent within the City of Sunnyvale. This is very discourging becuae the City of Sunnyvale is losing people who enrich the city.

2.I do not see a equity of representation. As I mentioned before, Sunnyvale is a multiculture city, but the participation of some community as Latinos, Afroamericans or Asian Americans are not proportionall to the demographics.

3. I do not see a participation of the LGBTTA community and the Senior / Elderly community.

12. Please describe your experience working with historically marginalized communities. How have your actions benefited these communities?

I work with low income families and with unhoused individuals. As a member of Sunnyvale Community Services, we work very hard to help these families and individuals and we try to do our best to aid them.

I also work in partnership with PARS to assist undocumented individuals to find a way to be able to legalize their status and therefore, they can have a better future in this country.

I work in partneship with more organizations to assist people who are in need and cannot afford to pay for different services. I forward these individuals to different organizatiosn where I know they can assist them with their different needs.

Human Relations Commission

We are looking for someone with community-level experience on issues related to equity, access, inclusion, and social justice

11. What do you think are major equity challenges facing the Sunnyvale community?

He analizado que no hay mucha participación en los distintos cargos de la ciudad por parte de los hispanos, tampoco veo una alta participación de las mujeres en las organizaciones y cuerpos.

Existe una vulnerabilidad económica en cuanto al valor de las rentas, no hay un control fiscal o legal sobre este tema. Este tema genera que personas o familias no puedan tener una vivienda digna y duerman en sus coches evidenciando una inequidad social relevante.

También las vías del 101 están en pésimas condiciones en su mayoría, es una situación que genera una problemática social y pública, además del peligro en la vida de quienes la utilizan.

12. Please describe your experience working with historically marginalized communities. How have your actions benefited these communities?

Con los líderes de la Community Sunnyvale Service realizamos actividades para personas de la tercera edad, niños, personas sin hogar, igualmente he participado en actividades con refugiados, personas inmigrantes sin documentación, víctimas de violencia doméstica.

Applicant: Claudia Comacho

4. What motivated you to apply for this board or commission?

My motivation is to participate in community work for the Hispanic community, as well as the personal learning that I can get from participating in activities.

5. What skills or attributes can you bring to this board or commission?

I consider myself a leader and I want to participate in activities where I can offer guidance, help, work, and support people with vulnerabilities such as: single mothers, recently-arrived immigrants, the elderly and children. I also like to be a mediator for conflicts or difficult situations, and I also have communication skills to efficiently inform the community about programs, events and organization activities.

6. The primary role of a board or commission member is to provide advice to City Council on policy issues that are within the scope of that board or commission. With this in mind, what steps would you take to effectively exercise this specific board or commission role?

In order to give an opinion as to the improvement of the city and community, I would make a report which would be based on reporting, surveys, meetings with groups of minorities, observing the conditions of urban development. And the essential part is to always listen to the different situations that the community expresses to then follow through and find a solution.

7. Education: List college degrees and majors, and any relevant training or experience that demonstrates your ability to effectively serve on this board or commission.

I graduated with a bachelor degree from the Instituto Francisco José de Caldas in 2001. I did my university studies at the Universidad del Quindío, graduating in Social Communication and Journalism. I have degrees in Public Office, Environmental Law, University Teaching and currently am studying the specialty of Market Strategy Management.

8. Briefly describe your current or last occupation.

I currently clean, sell food and do shifts at a food store.

9. Briefly describe what you learned by attending a meeting of the City Council, board or commission. Describe what improvements you would suggest the City consider.

When I went to a school district meeting I observed that they should improve the logistics in terms of: sound, placement of the participants, entry, order in public speaking, and activity development times.

10. Describe your involvement in community activities, volunteer and civic organizations.

I am part of the Sunnyvale Community Services Community Leaders program, carrying out informative campaigns for events, programs and activities. I also participate in activities for kids or in the schools.

11. What do you think are major equity challenges facing the Sunnyvale community?

I have analyzed that there isn't much participation in the different city roles by Hispanics, nor do I see much participation by women in organizations and roles. There is an economic vulnerability in terms of rent values, there is no fiscal or legal control over this. This causes people or families to be unable to have a decent home and they sleep in their cars which shows relevant social inequality. Also, the highway 101 road network is in terrible condition, which causes a social and public problem, as well as being dangerous for those who use it.

12. Please describe your experience working with historically marginalized communities. How have your actions benefited these communities?

With the leaders of Sunnyvale Community Service we do activities for the elderly, kids, the homeless, and I have participated in activities for refugees, undocumented immigrants, and victims of domestic violence.

solteras que no aiga mas vuid.

Applicant: Gabriela Sanchez

4. What motivated you to apply for this board or commission?

No. Because there is a lot of support and respect for any race and one's voice is heard.

5. What skills or attributes can you bring to this board or commission?

I ask that they lower the rent for all homes in Sunnyvale. Because some of us have had so much anxiety about expenses and house payments.

6. The primary role of a board or commission member is to provide advice to City Council on policy issues that are within the scope of that board or commission. With this in mind, what steps would you take to effectively exercise this specific board or commission role?

My experience is with student transport.
More Spanish-speaking resources for an emergency.
Why do they ignore the bullying, where it happens most in the schools?

7. Education: List college degrees and majors, and any relevant training or experience that demonstrates your ability to effectively serve on this board or commission.

I think they are fine. The cost of gas is making transport go up too much.

8. Briefly describe your current or last occupation.

Prep cook

9. Briefly describe what you learned by attending a meeting of the City Council, board or commission. Describe what improvements you would suggest the City consider.

Learn about the programs the commission offers.
Consider the topic of security for the city and the students.
On April 25 we will attend a city event. There is no visibility.
It should be closer to the city.

10. Describe your involvement in community activities, volunteer and civic organizations.

We do events in the community of Sunnyvale in all occasions for all necessary family services. More unity.

11. What do you think are major equity challenges facing the Sunnyvale community?

Rent services
Scholarship services for students.
We went to an event meeting and for the first time they spoke in Spanish.
So many times it was always in English. We only want them to hear our Latin voice.

12. Please describe your experience working with historically marginalized communities. How have your actions benefited these communities?

To be a volunteer in everything for service. That there be more of a Latin voice to hear us and support the people who don't have a home. Many people are not heard, to support more. No racism. To be more united and heard. For all who are qualified and single mothers. No more bullying.

NOTE: If you are applying for more than one board or commission, please reference the specific board or commission in your response to questions 4-7.

4. What motivated you to apply for this board or commission?

My interest in social and economic justice motivated me to apply for the human relations commission. I am also interested in government and want to increase community involvement, especially among younger people as many are not aware of the power they hold and what they can achieve. Serving on the human relations commission will be a great opportunity for me further my interests and also have a tangible impact on the Sunnyvale community. Another reason I wanted to apply to this board is that I want to make Sunnyvale an equitable place since me and my family feels the impact of many issues but solving them is especially hard because of the immense diversity and size of Sunnyvale. This feeling has recently increased because of the impact of Covid and inflation is causing many visible equity challenges like homelessness. I also want to develop my speaking and leadership skills by serving on this commission. To conclude, I am motivated to apply for this commission to make Sunnyvale more diverse, equitable, and inclusive.

5. What skills or attributes can you bring to this board or commission?

Through my various experience in community service, leadership, team competitions, and event organization I have developed many skills and attributes to contribute to this commission. Firstly, I have strong communication skills through my experience as club president and I can effectively communicate with both adults and my peers. I have the ability to listen actively, speak clearly, and write concisely which is important for delivering presentations and writing reports. Furthermore, I have extensive knowledge and experience in diversity and inclusion. I have done this by organizing events like the clothing drive and also taking many courses relating to inclusion and diversity from the American Red Cross. I have a strong sense of empathy and understanding which will be really useful to find and identify equitable solutions. I have strong direct community involvement whether through volunteering in the community and have direct experience interacting with people from many backgrounds. Finally, I am great at analytical and critical thinking as well as conflict resolution. This means I am able to analyze complex issues, gather data, and make informed decisions. I am also able to think critically about policies and programs and identify areas for improvement. To conclude, I have many skills and attributes that can greatly benefit the board.

6. The primary role of a board or commission member is to provide advice to City Council on policy issues that are within the scope of that board or commission. With this in mind, what steps would you take to effectively exercise this specific board or commission role?

Firstly, I would familiarize myself with all my roles and responsibilities so that I could perform my role effectively. I would make sure to familiarize myself with the city's policies and guidelines and also any knowledge I need to perform my role. I will also actively try to increase my up to date knowledge on local issues that come under the commission, I will do this by attending relevant events, reading reports and studies, and staying up-to-date with news and developments in the area of focus. Furthermore, I will form meaningful connections with other board members that I can discuss and communicate with them effectively. I would also work collaborative with them to develop recommendations and advice that reflect a range of perspectives and experiences. I also want to seek out diverse viewpoints and engage in respectful and productive discussions. The next step would be to provide knowledgeable advice that is both clear and concise to inform the city council and the general public. Finally, I would follow up on my recommendations and evaluate their effectiveness. Then I will provide feedback and make adjustments as needed to improve the quality and impact of your advice. By ensuring that I take these steps, I believe that I would effectively exercise the human relations commission.

7. Education: List college degrees and majors, and any relevant training or experience that demonstrates your ability to effectively serve on this board or commission.

Fremont High School - 10th Grade GPA 4.0

I have lots of experience discussing local issues through my middle school's history bowl club and currently at my high school's global issues and politics club. I also took many courses on diversity and inclusion from the American Red Cross.

8. Briefly describe your current or last occupation.

Full-Time Student studying at Fremont High School.

9. Briefly describe what you learned by attending a meeting of the City Council, board or commission. Describe what improvements you would suggest the City consider.

I have never attended a City Council meeting but I am planning to attend one and learn more. From this, one improvement I would suggest the city consider is to advertise these meetings more or offer incentives so that more of the community can join and contribute to the city and it also increases transparency between the general public and the city council.

10. Describe your involvement in community activities, volunteer and civic organizations.

At my school, I am the co-founder and president of a Global Issues and politics club, which raises awareness about global and local issues through lessons and discussions. So far, we have organized a clothing drive for a local homeless shelter and raised more than 300$ for the recent earthquake in Syria and Türkiye. I am also the treasurer for a Red Cross club where we teach first aid and provide community volunteering opportunities. As treasurer, I host fundraisers to raise money for the red cross and have raised over 500$ this year. I am also part of teams such as robotics and the Science Olympiad. For robotics, we created a community impact project that teaches STEAM(Science Technology Engineering Art Math) concepts to sesd elementary school students and I helped develop the curriculum. I also tutor my peers at a peer tutoring service offered by my school. Outside of school, I have volunteered for Sunnyvale city events such as the hands-on art event. I also currently volunteer for El Camino Hospital where I help transport and discharge patients. Additionally, I also volunteer for the Red Cross as a Data Hero, where I manage donor data, and as an International Humanitarian Law Advocate, where I promote and educate people about international laws on human rights.

11. The City has a Code of Ethics and Conduct for Elected and Appointed Officials and an Attendance Policy \(7.2.19\), 2.G.(II) that appointed members are required to follow. Do you have any concerns in these two areas?

Yes No

If so, please describe.

12. If an unplanned vacancy arises on the board(s) or commission(s) you are interested in, would you be willing to accept a temporary appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term or until a recruitment is held and Council officially fills the vacancy?

Yes No

Human Relations Commission

We are looking for someone with community-level experience on issues related to equity, access, inclusion, and social justice

11. What do you think are major equity challenges facing the Sunnyvale community?

Some major equity challenges facing the Sunnyvale community are housing, education disparities, and health and healthcare access. For housing, the main problem is housing affordability. Being in the bay area there is a lot of demand for housing and the current rate of construction is not able to meet the demand, which is causing to exponentially increase housing prices. Housing being one of the most important things to live and I think it is important for everyone to have access to some kind of housing. In terms of education, there is a lot of educational disparity. Especially since there is only one public high school in Sunnyvale, many people have to commute large distances to reach school prohibiting them from participating in many after school activities or get the help they need from teachers or peers after school, which further increases education disparities. Finally, I also think healthcare access is a major equity challenge since many people aren't able to get preventative care which results in even more expensive care. Healthcare is really important as it allows people to live their life to fullest and not be inhibited by an health conditions and it is important that everyone has access to high quality health care.

12. Please describe your experience working with historically marginalized communities. How have your actions benefited these communities?

I don't have much experience with directly working with historically marginalized communities but I did interact with people from many backgrounds while volunteering at an hospital and also from taking courses on such topics from the American Red Cross. From the lessons and my experiences, I learned that working with historically marginalized communities requires a deep understanding of their unique needs, experiences, and perspectives. It also requires a commitment to equity and inclusion, and a willingness to address systemic barriers to opportunity and well-being. My actions at the hospital by helping them at one of their most stressful times I think had very positive impact on them and made them welcomed and respected.

1. Are you a currently-registered voter in Sunnyvale?
Yes No

When was the last time you voted?

Month November Year 2022

2. Are you currently serving or have you served on a City of Sunnyvale board or commission?
Yes No

If yes, which one?

Term currently serving _____

Term previously served _____

3. Prior attendance at a board or commission meeting is highly desirable. Have you attended meeting(s) of the board or commission for which you are applying?

Yes No

If yes, how many meetings have you attended?

I have attended several meetings virtually and have also been making progress listening to past meetings.

NOTE: If you are applying for more than one board or commission, please reference the specific board or commission in your response to questions 4-7.

4. What motivated you to apply for this board or commission?

I am deeply interested in local government and serving my community. I think joining a city commission is a good way for me to do both. Raised in Sunnyvale, I have a deep connection to the city. I am currently working on a graduate degree in public administration. I also think that being younger than other commissioners, I can bring an underrepresented perspective to meetings. I am committed to being well-informed on city issues and using my knowledge, experience, and perspective to serve on a commission and I am excited to contribute to the positive changes happening all around Sunnyvale.

5. What skills or attributes can you bring to this board or commission?

I believe that my background and experience would make me a valuable addition to this commission. As I am currently pursuing a graduate degree in public administration, I have been exposed to important concepts and practices relevant to city government. Furthermore, being raised in Sunnyvale, I have a deep understanding of the needs and challenges facing the city. I am also familiar with services available, which would enable me to provide informed input on related matters. Additionally, I bring a fresh perspective to the commission as a younger member, representing the needs and interests of under 30 demographics. I am confident that I can use my education, knowledge, and experience to contribute positively to this commission, and ultimately serve the public interest of Sunnyvale.

6. The primary role of a board or commission member is to provide advice to City Council on policy issues that are within the scope of that board or commission. With this in mind, what steps would you take to effectively exercise this specific board or commission role?

As a board or commission member, I understand that my primary role is to provide advice to the City Council on policy issues within the scope of that board or commission. To effectively execute this role, I would take the following steps. First, I would seek out information on my own, researching relevant topics, gathering data, and staying up-to-date on current events related to my commission. Second, I would actively listen to city staff and leaders in the space, leveraging their expertise and knowledge to inform my input to the commission. Third, being on a commission would be a top priority for me, and I would commit the necessary time and effort to prepare for and attend meetings, review materials, and engage with stakeholders. Finally, I am respectful, thoughtful, open to new ideas, and hardworking, and I believe these qualities would enable me to collaborate effectively with other commission members, City Council members, and community members, and ultimately provide valuable advice to the City Council.

7. Education: List college degrees and majors, and any relevant training or experience that demonstrates your ability to effectively serve on this board or commission.

I graduated from McGill University in Montreal, Canada in 2021 with a degree in International Development Studies and East Asian Studies. During that time I was a representative for the committee of university dorms. I am now working on completing a Master's in Public Administration which I think will be relevant to serve on the community.

8. Briefly describe your current or last occupation.

I currently work for the City of Santa Clara as a Human Resources Technician in the Benefits & Records division. I have only been in this role for about 6 months. Prior to this, I worked as a public safety dispatcher for over a year at UC Berkeley police department.

9. Briefly describe what you learned by attending a meeting of the City Council, board or commission. Describe what improvements you would suggest the City consider.

By attending commission meetings, I learned about ongoing projects and initiatives, as well as the concerns and perspectives of community members. I think it would be an improvement if community members were given an additional minute to prevent them from feeling rushed and to allow them to provide council with more context or details. I think it would also be worthwhile to update the city's official website with meetings to be compatible with modern browsers without plugins but recognize this may require a significant investment to do.

Applicant Name Carter Hu

10. Describe your involvement in community activities, volunteer and civic organizations.

I participate in adult education programs and frequently use city parks and the library. Whether or not I am selected to be a commissioner I intend to participate in more volunteer activities in Sunnyvale.

11. The City has a Code of Ethics and Conduct for Elected and Appointed Officials and an Attendance Policy (7.2.19), 2.G.(II) that appointed members are required to follow. Do you have any concerns in these two areas?

Yes No

If so, please describe.

12. If an unplanned vacancy arises on the board(s) or commission(s) you are interested in, would you be willing to accept a temporary appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term or until a recruitment is held and Council officially fills the vacancy?

Yes No

Board of Library Trustees

We are looking for someone who has interest in Library-related issues

4. Community demographics and technology are constantly changing. What do you think are the principal issues the Sunnyvale Public Library may be addressing over the next few years?

The Sunnyvale public library is facing several key issues that require attention. First, libraries will need to adapt to changing technological trends and user expectations. Digital media and online resources are more available now than at any point in history. Libraries need to balance their traditional role as book repositories with new services and resources that cater to the digital age. Additionally, libraries must address issues related to access and equity, and ensure that all members of the community can take advantage of its resources. I also believe it would be worth exploring how library spaces can be utilized for more community activities and if it would be possible to create study rooms such as those found at university libraries.

Planning Commission

16. I understand that if I am appointed to Planning Commission, I will be required to electronically file the Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700) that reports my economic interests and my spouse/domestic partner's economic interests (if applicable) , which is a public record?

Yes No

A copy of this form is available by visiting www.fppc.ca.gov/Form700.html

17. Sunnyvale has limited vacant land for new development. This could increase pressure for redevelopment of existing developed areas. How can planning respond to this situation?

With limited vacant land for new development in Sunnyvale, the planning commission must respond thoughtfully and appropriately. In my view, planning should focus on enlarging Sunnyvale's housing stock, especially affordable housing to meet the needs of the growing population. This can be achieved by incentivizing developers to build affordable housing and working with non-profit organizations and community groups to identify suitable sites for development. Planning should also prioritize balancing new development against the need to retain Sunnyvale's historic elements that enhance the character of the city. This can be done by implementing regulations and guidelines to preserve historic structures and promote rehabilitation of existing buildings. Additionally, planning should prioritize new walkable and bikeable development that enhances the community and aligns with the values in Sunnyvale's sustainability policy and with the Vision Zero Plan. By taking a balanced and comprehensive approach, planning can respond to the limited vacant land for new development in Sunnyvale and create a sustainable, livable, and affordable community for all residents.

18. Planning Commissioners are often asked to consider social, economic and environmental issues when reviewing proposals. How does one achieve a balanced community?

When reviewing proposals, planning commissioners are tasked with evaluating social, economic, and environmental factors to achieve a balanced community. Though it is desirable, proposals do not necessarily need to make progress towards all factors at once. Instead, commissioners should evaluate projects holistically and in combination with other proposals on the docket while maintaining a long-term perspective, taking special care not to let perfect be the enemy of good. By taking this approach, planning can help create a balanced community that meets the needs of all residents current and future while taking into account Sunnyvale's unique characteristics and challenges. Planning commissioners can help create a sustainable and equitable community for years to come by considering relevant factors like affordability, access to services like transportation, and environmental factors,
