Sunnyvale (owner)
Environmental Review: Environmental Impact Report

Mayor Hendricks provided an overview of the process for hearing the item.

Director of Community Development Trudi Ryan and Assistant City Manager Kent Steffens provided the staff report. Director of Community Development Ryan noted an error in the staff recommendation in the staff report and stated staff recommends Alternative 3 in reference to Attachment 4. Director of Public Works Manuel Pineda and City Attorney John Nagel provided additional information.

MOTION: Councilmember Meyering moved to terminate the hearing and to vacate the findings of the Planning Commission concerning the EIR based on the grounds that the sales agreement between the City of Sunnyvale and the buyer clearly states that the closing deadline can be no more than two years after the effective date which was November 2013.

The motion died due to lack of a second.

Appellant Ray-Nor Park Neighborhood Association: Wee-Lee Lim provided information and a PowerPoint presentation in opposition to certification of the EIR, citing questionable traffic analysis including the magnitude of impact of Apple traffic, lack of analysis of pedestrian/bicyclist safety, inadequate parking and concerns regarding air quality. Lim expressed concerns regarding the joint use agreement and the RFP process, lack of seismic improvement to the buildings for safety of the students and lack of mitigation of parking issues. Lim urged Council to overturn the certification of the EIR and uphold the denial of the use permit.

Applicant/Appellant Stratford School: Clay Stringham, Stratford School, provided information and a PowerPoint presentation regarding the proposed project. Stringham cited potential improvements and benefits to the neighborhood including proposed plans for improvement to the buildings, that Stratford will pay the park maintenance costs, a new basketball court will be added to the park and additional bleachers and other equipment will be added for use by sports associations. Stringham cited Stratford's monitoring of current daytime use of the park and addressed comments made by the other Appellant regarding the EIR. Stringham stated that Stratford has completed all studies required, met all requirements and has agreed to all Conditions of Approval. Stringham requested Council certify the EIR and approve the use permit.

Council recessed at 9:37 p.m.

Council reconvened at 9:49 p.m. with all Councilmembers present.

Public Hearing opened at 9:49 p.m.

Aylin Salanifar spoke in support of Stratford School and requested approval of the conditional use permit to allow Stratford to move to a larger facility.

Riya Mehta spoke in support of Stratford School and requested approval of the conditional use permit to allow the Santa Clara Stratford School to move to a larger school.

Arni Kulkarni spoke in support of Stratford School.

Ameya Mulay spoke in support of Stratford School.

Denise DeLange requested denial of the conditional use permit citing traffic and safety issues, and recommended the land be retained for public use.

Mark Isaak, speaking for himself, spoke in support of Stratford and regarding field use and traffic impacts.

Vaishali Angal spoke in support of Stratford School.

Vidya Janardhanan spoke in support of Stratford School.

George Nakamura spoke in support of Stratford School citing outstanding educational benefits and in support of a future Branch Library at Lakewood.

Mary Sullivan spoke in support of denial of the conditional use permit citing questions regarding the bid process and the 1978 deed restriction to park, recreational or open space use only.

Elizabeth Craig spoke in support of Stratford School and stated Raynor Park would be shared between the school and the community.

Che Angkham spoke in support of Stratford School citing the benefit to students and the community.

Dorian Jewett expressed concerns regarding out of area students, traffic impacts, bicycle and pedestrian safety, and recommended redoing the EIR and use permit.

Sue Harrison, speaking for herself, stated she passes the area numerous times per week and rarely observes neighborhood use of the park, and feels inconvenience to the neighborhood is a nominal concern.

Tyler Smith spoke regarding potential traffic impacts to students walking to school and the park, conflicts of afterschool use of the park by the school, and traffic impacts of parents dropping off children.

Brad Berezna spoke in support of Stratford School and urged approval of the conditional use permit.

Barbara McGarvey spoke in support of Stratford School.

Ashish Verma spoke in support of retaining public open spaces and expressed concerns regarding pedestrian safety to residents of the neighborhood and children.

Jill Shanmugasundaram, speaking as a representative of the Board of Directors of AYSO, stated they are not in opposition to the Stratford School proposal and they do not feel the joint use agreement will impact AYSO.

Fred Fowler, former President of the Lakewood Village Neighborhood Association, stated the Board's affirmative support of the conditional use permit for Stratford School.

Sarah Rao spoke in opposition to location of the Stratford School at Raynor Park.

Sudhakar Ram spoke in support of the need for quality local schools and expressed support for Stratford School.

Mitchell Pearce, realtor, spoke in support of Stratford School, citing increased property values and increased educational value.

Daniel Clothier, umpire, Metro Little League, spoke in opposition to loss of field use at Raynor Park and increased traffic and requested upholding the decision of the Planning Commission.

Joan Clothier expressed concerns regarding traffic impacts and safety and spoke in favor of saving open space. Clothier requested upholding the Planning Commission denial of the conditional use permit for Raynor Park.

Henry Alexander submitted signatures of over 1,000 people who support saving Raynor Park, and spoke regarding the impact of adding over 800 cars daily in the neighborhood.

Michael Goldman spoke in support of allowing the people to vote on this issue.

Brenda Mula spoke in support of Stratford School and provided information regarding student community service programs that benefit the community.

Mary Klink addressed comments regarding low field use and provided information regarding heavy field use times. Klink also expressed concerns regarding traffic safety and safety of the neighborhood children and pedestrians.

Preeti Ray spoke regarding overcrowding at Laurelwood School and the need to re-open Patrick Henry, and stated Raynor is not the right location for Stratford.

Preeti Sharma expressed concern regarding earlier statements by a Stratford teacher, bicycle and pedestrian safety, and the joint use agreement.

Shomir Dighe expressed concerns regarding the RFP, the traffic study, noise levels from the drop-off corridor, pollution, safety hazards, and negative impacts to property values.

Demetrios Triantafyllou spoke in opposition to the school citing increased traffic and noise pollution, and asked the Council to uphold the Planning Commission denial of the conditional use and declare the land surplus and put on the market.

Brooks Shaw expressed concerns regarding traffic impacts to the area and the use agreement.

Neena Razdan spoke in opposition to any school that would increase traffic in the Birdland neighborhood and requested Council vote against it.

Kirti expressed concerns regarding bicycle and pedestrian safety in the neighborhood.

Kuntal Thakore spoke against the proposal and stated there are already many great schools in the area. Thakore expressed concerns regarding traffic and pedestrian safety and urged denial of the proposal.

Jean Batryn expressed concerns regarding priority use of public lands, school start times, and traffic impacts.

Wendy Hales spoke regarding traffic impacts and the traffic study and recommended keeping the park.

Arjun Ray spoke regarding the current traffic problems in the neighborhood, use of the fields, and spoke in favor of retaining the park for public use.

Suzanne Gokel expressed concerns regarding traffic and safety in the neighborhood.

Shilpa Bhat spoke regarding the proposed use of the park by Stratford and requested Council deny the priority use and the use permit.

David Lieberman spoke in opposition to the Stratford School proposal citing neighborhood preservation, traffic and safety concerns.

Mike Kurtz spoke in opposition to Stratford's priority use of Raynor Park and the conditional use permit.

EIR Applicant: Wee-Lee Lim addressed comments regarding property values and provided recommendations for overturning the EIR and requested denial of the use permit.

Use Permit Applicant: Clay Stringham addressed comments regarding traffic impacts, the number of proposed classrooms, use of the park in the summer, no problem with the soccer groups, and stated he will reach out to the neighbors in Birdland.

Public Hearing closed at 12:07 a.m.
