Applicant Qualifications

What motivated you to apply for this board or commission?

I am motivated by a deep commitment to protecting our environment while supporting responsible urban development. As the Founder of Pro Nature City and the creator of the PLEM™ approach, I have dedicated years to developing practical solutions that integrate sustainability into the built environment without compromising growth.

Sunnyvale is a forward-thinking city, and I believe this is the right place to contribute innovative, scalable ideas that can help address climate challenges. I am especially motivated to support policies that not only reduce environmental impact but also improve public safety, energy efficiency, and long-term resilience for the community.

What skills or attributes can you bring to this board or commission?

I bring a combination of creative problem-solving, systems thinking, and a multidisciplinary background in design, architecture, and sustainability.

As the developer of the PLEM™ approach-focused on saving the planet, protecting lives and structures, and improving energy efficiency-I offer a fresh, solution-oriented perspective on sustainability challenges.

In addition, I bring:

*

Strong analytical thinking and the ability to evaluate long-term impacts

*

A collaborative mindset and openness to diverse viewpoints

*

Experience in presenting complex idea clearly to both professionals and the public

---

The primary role of a board or commission member is to provide advice to City Council on policy issues that are within the scope of the board or commission. What steps would you take to effectively exercise this specific board or commission role?

To effectively serve on the commission, I would:

*

Stay informed by reviewing staff reports, policies, and best practices in sustainability and climate planning

*

Listen actively to community members, stakeholders, and experts to understand diverse perspectives

*

Evaluate policies thoughtfully, considering environmental, economic, and social impacts

*

Ask constructive questions and contribute ideas that are practical, forward-thinking, and aligned with the City's goals

*

Collaborate respectfully with fellow commissioners and City staff to provide balanced, well-informed recommendations to the City Council.

Category Two: I'm a Sunnyvale business community member.	No
---	----

Sustainability is a new and emerging concern in many communities. What do you think are the primary sustainability policy issues this commission will be addressing over the next few years?

In the coming years, I believe the commission will focus on several key sustainability challenges, including:

*

Climate resilience, particularly in response to increasing risks such as wildfires, extreme heat, and severe storms

*

Energy efficiency and building performance, including reducing energy consumption and promoting sustainable construction practices

Urban development and land use, balancing growth with preservation of natural ecosystems

Addressing these issues will require innovative thinking, practical solutions, and strong collaboration between the City, community members, and industry professionals.
