Hello Gabby. Yes, I received the proposed plan - Thank you. My wife and I do have concerns with this plan. As next door neighbors, we are concerned with the proximity of the addition to our front yard and living room. Our houses are built with living rooms next to each other and the addition would be very close to the property line and front of our house. We feel this would create privacy issues since the addition side windows could view into our living room. The plan also reduces privacy in our front yard since it is so close - when walking to our front door we would be looking directly at and into the addition. We feel the addition could also reduce the value of our property.

Thank you for checking.

Best Regards;

Richard and Marian

Good morning, Richard,

Of course. It is a 193 sq ft addition to the front of the home.

Hello Gabby. I am a street neighbor to this proposed plan. Is there a way for me to review/view this plan? Thanks in advance.

Richard
