

Sunnyvale

Silicon Valley Reads 2025

Julie Moore, Adult Services Librarian
Lynette Yorks, Youth Services Librarian
February 3, 2025

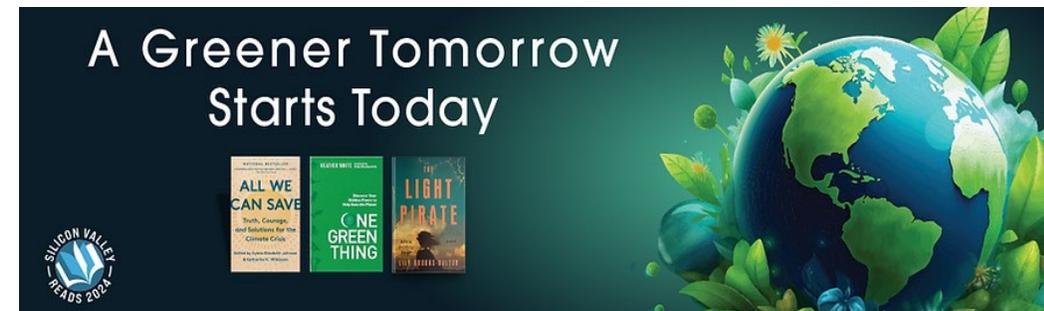

Silicon Valley Reads

- Started in 2003 as a traditional "one book, one community"
- Evolved into books reflecting a theme to encourage people to read, think, discuss and engage
- Events offered throughout Santa Clara County for all age groups and thousands each year participate

Silicon Valley Reads 2024

- Theme: A Greener Tomorrow Starts Today
- 14 programs for adults, children and teens
- 416 attendees

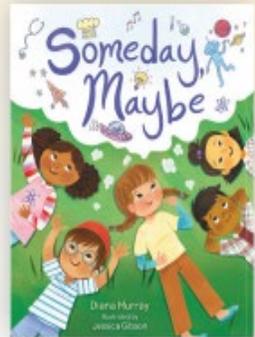

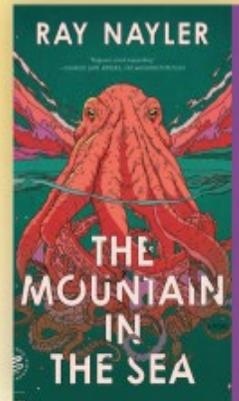

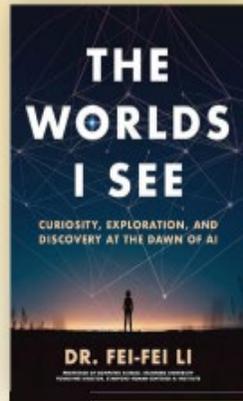

Empowering Humanity: Technology for a Better World

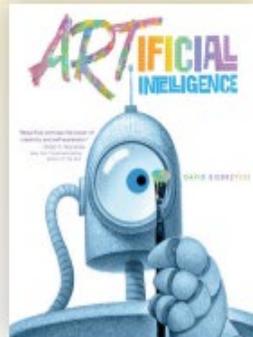

- Kick Off Jan 30 at De Anza College
- Programs for adults, teens and children
- Events at libraries throughout Santa Clara County in February and March

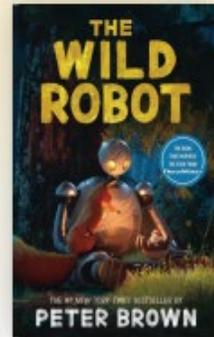

Books

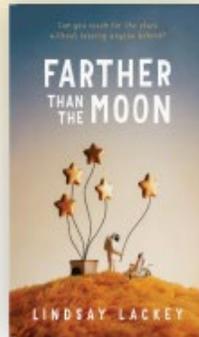

(Pre-K – K)

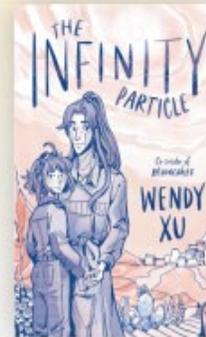

(Lower Elementary)

(Upper Elementary)

(Middle School)

(High School/YA)

Books for Adults

- The Worlds I See
- The Mountain in the Sea
- Loneliness & Company

Books for Kids

- Someday Maybe
- ARTificial Intelligence
- The Wild Robot
- Farther than the Moon
- The Infinity Particle

Programs for Adults

- 2/12 - Zen Coloring for Adults
- 2/21 - AI Revolution – NOVA
- 2/24 - Chinese in the Digital Age with Thomas Mullaney
- 3/5 - Introduction to AI
- 3/19 - Monthly Book Group – The Worlds I See

Comic Workshop with Wendy Xu

Author and illustrator of the graphic novel The Infinity Particle

- For Teens and Adults, ages 13+
- Author Talk – What makes a comic?
- Attendees will design their own four panel comic.
- Monday, March 17

Programs for Teens

- 2/19 - Unpacking Artificial Intelligence (For Beginners)
- 2/23 - Family Movie: The Wild Robot
- 3/17 - Comic Workshop with Wendy Xu
- 3/19 - Poetry in the Age of AI

Programs for Children

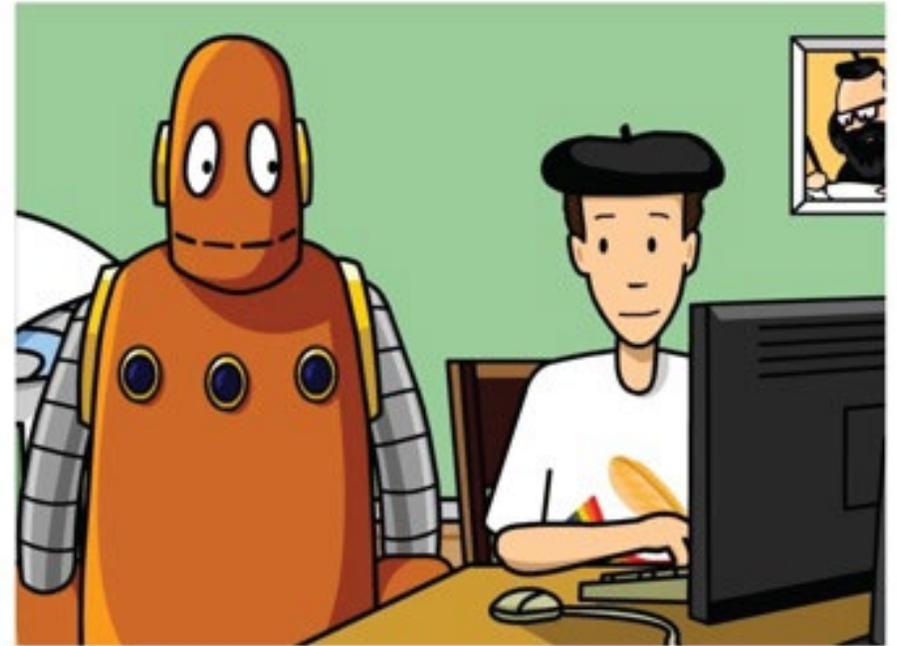

- 2/20 - Dash Robot Coding for Grades 2 to 6.
- 2/23 - Family Movie: The Wild Robot (Rated PG)
- 3/1 - LED Robot Craft Ages 7-12
- 3/12 - Kids Create a Robot Grades 1 to 5
- 3/20 - Build a Robot Hand Grades 1 to 5

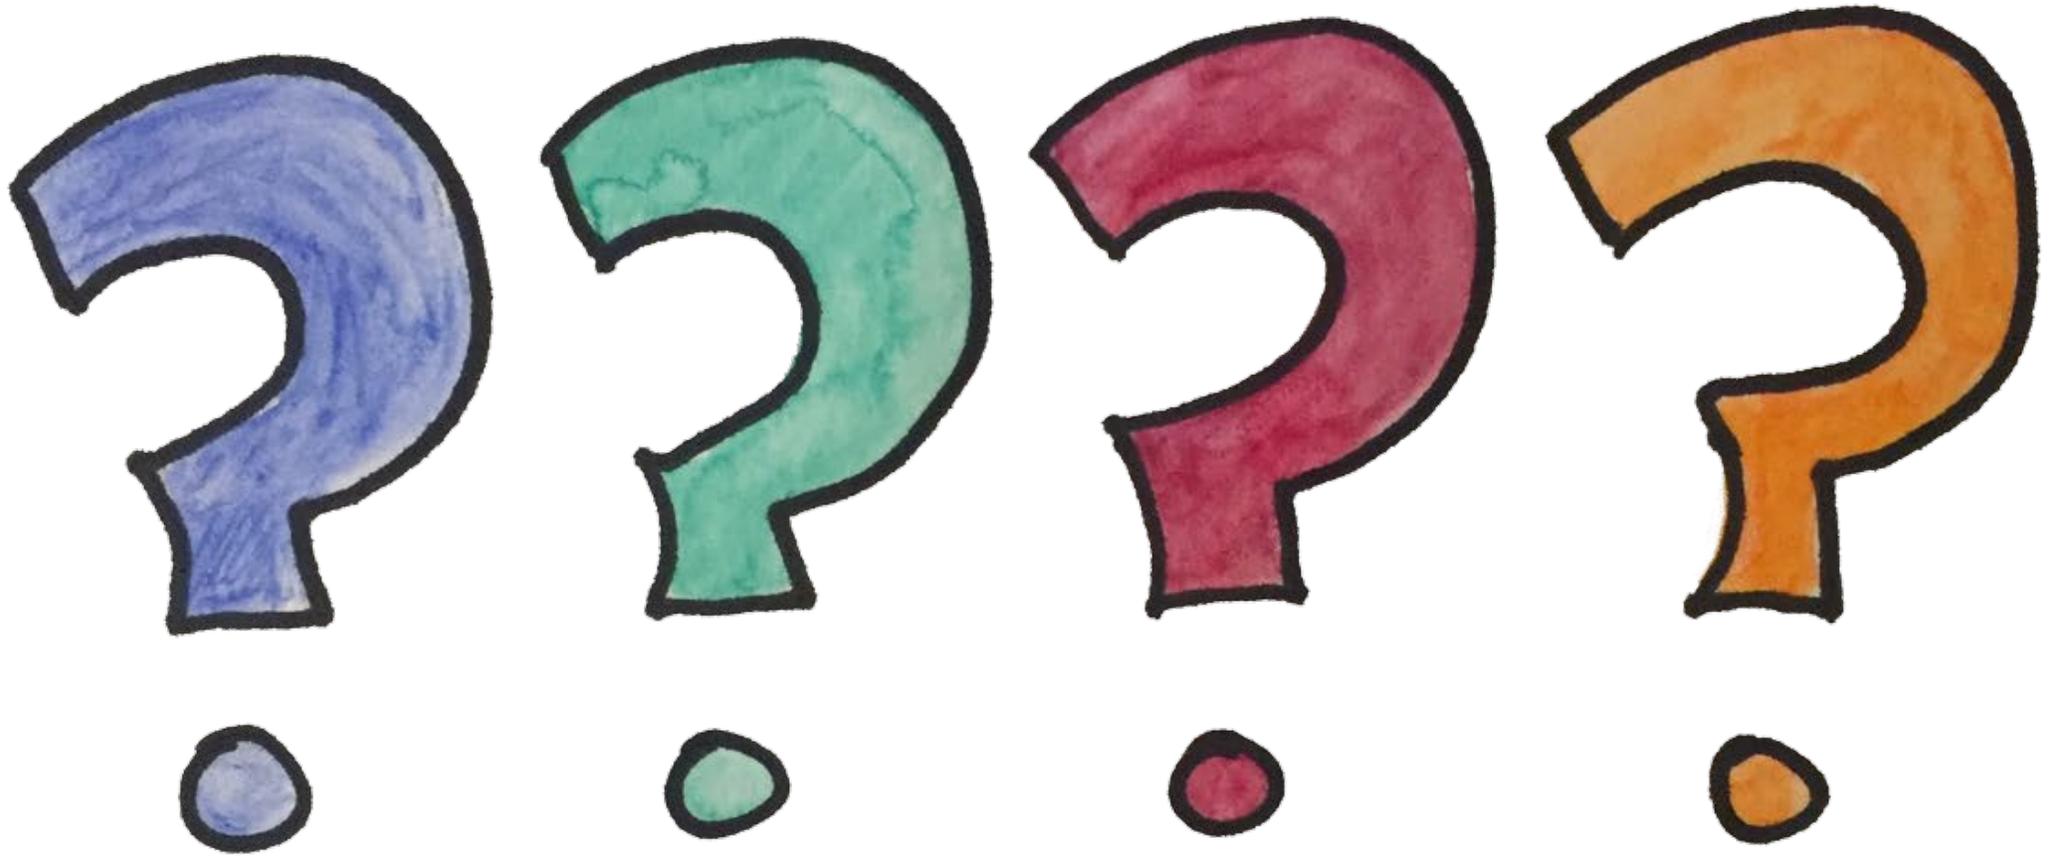

Poetry in the Age of AI

Youth Poet Laureate Sierra Elmon has a passion for both poetry and AI

For Teens

- Discuss – The Future of Poetry
- Attendees will learn about ChatGPT
- Analyze a Poem
- Explore AI Poetry
- Wednesday, March 19

Questions?