1.

Gregory Dibbs noted that the community would like:
to have tennis/pickle ball access for local neighborhood families, similiar to all other neighborhoods in SVL who have free walk on access to their neighborhood tennis courts.

Commisioners inquired ad staff responded:

Lifetime Activities pays 14K a month for 20 acres of space.

We could have the director of lifetime activities, Michael Stanton make a presentation of the parks and rec staff.

Residents can work out a private deal with lifetime activities for access.

3. Strike all parts of what the contract does or doesn't state.
