

Introducing Livable Sunnyvale

“Livable Sunnyvale promotes a livable, sustainable city with affordable housing and transportation solutions for all members of our community through education, outreach and advocacy.”

Why Livable Sunnyvale Matters

-  Sunnyvale faces high housing costs and transportation challenges
-  Amplifies resident voices for equitable and sustainable planning

About Livable Sunnyvale

-  Nonprofit community coalition (est. 2016)
- Pillars:
 -  Housing
 -  Sustainability
 -  Transportation
 -  Equity

What We Do - Past Advocacy

-  Housing advocacy (especially affordable housing)
 - Moffett Park Specific Plan
 - Sunnyvale Housing Element 2023-2031
 - El Camino Real Specific Plan
-  Sustainable transportation initiatives
 - Supporting bike safety programs
 - Regional transportation solutions
-  Equitable policy engagement
 - Minimum wage increases
 - Coaching residents to be advocates and leaders in our community
 - Regional transportation solutions
 - Safe parking sites and other initiatives for unhoused community members

How We Advocate

- Monthly meetings
 - Educational outreach meetings with the community
 - Candidate forums
 - Special events with guest speakers
- Co-sponsor events with coalition partners
- Provide public input in Planning Commission and City Council Meetings
- Attend City outreach meetings

FINAL PRESENTATION

Coalition Partners

... and more!

Grant Support

- 2025 Silicon Valley Community Foundation Grant: $30,000
 - Change the narrative and perception about the unhoused
- 2025 Santa Clara County URJGENT Grant: $3,000
 - Wordly translation software
- 2024 Santa Clara County URJGENT Grant: $2,500
 - Wordly translation software

Ways to Get Involved

-  Follow and engage via social media
-  Volunteer, attend a meeting or social
-  Visit: www.livablesunnyvale.org

Thank you for your interest in Livable Sunnyvale.

? Questions ?

Livable
Sunnyvale