

Sharing the Road

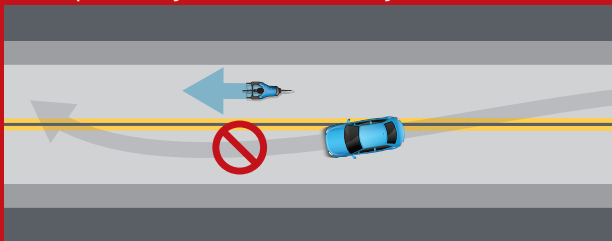

Sharing the road with bicyclists is the law. And these signs and markings mean you're on a designated bike route. Follow these rules when cyclists are present.

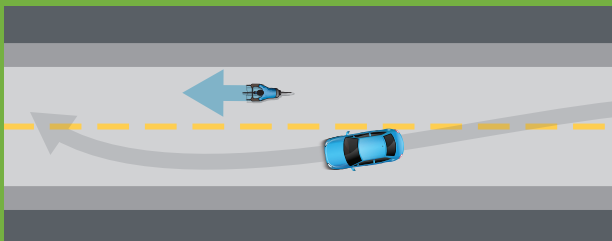

Bicyclists may use full lane

Do not pass bicyclists on double yellow line

Drivers may pass bicyclists on broken yellow line when it is safe

For information about transportation and traffic safety in Sunnyvale, scan the QR code or search "Traffic Safety" at Sunnyvale.ca.gov.

Speeding is Dangerous

The risk of injury and death increases as vehicle speed increases.

Only 1 out of 10
pedestrians survives

Source: The League of American Bicyclists

Be Alert, Stay Safe

DRIVERS — Slow down and watch for pedestrians and bicyclists, especially when turning.

PEDESTRIANS and BICYCLISTS — Use body and bike lights and wear bright and reflective clothing.

Sunnyvale