ORAL COMMUNICATIONS

David Hernandez, Sunnyvale Community Services (SCS) Director of Social Services, and Keisha Miller, Program Manager of Client Services, gave a summary of a letter that was provided to the Commissioners to highlight the following growing trends that SCS has experienced with its clients and that help support the request for additional funding for human services.

- Growing demand for access to affordable rental housing to prevent high volume of relocations outside of Sunnyvale.
- Growing need for landlord/tenant dispute services to prevent discrimination of lower-income tenants, and no-cause evictions.
- Increased need for support services to navigate how to access and/or apply for benefits, such as; CalWorks, CalFresh, MediCal, and Medicare.
