Senior Planner Momoko Ishijima presented the proposal with a slide show presentation.

Zareen Khan, Owner, presented her proposal with a slide show presentation.

Commissioner Sharma asked if the structure will be reinforced for earthquake safety and Ms. Ishijima noted that the interior improvements have building permits.

Commissioner Sofaer asked if the rear patio is going to remain as a courtyard and Ms. Khan said yes.

Commissioner Rawal asked regarding the noise from the HVAC system on the roof and if she is planning to keep the landscaping in the rear. Ms. Khan responded that the HVAC was existing and the other proposed equipment have been permitted and that she is planning to keep the landscaping in the rear patio.

Commissioner Johnson asked if the new facade will support the architectural design of Historic Murphy Avenue and Ms. Khan responded that their goal is to retain the Old World European design.

Commissioner McManis asked if the motif or vibe will support the design of Historic Murphy Avenue and Ms. Khan noted that the historical consultant she brought aboard designed the outside architecture to be compliant with the Murphy Avenue Design Guidelines.

Ms. Khan noted that their focus to bring young professionals who live downtown patronize the restaurant.

Chair Garrett opened the public hearing.

Chair Garrett closed the public hearing.

Commissioner Sharma asked staff of the timeline of when the business would open and MS. Ishijima deferred the question to Ms. Khan, which she stated they hope to open by the end of this year.
