PUBLIC HEARINGS/GENERAL BUSINESS

- 2      26-0396      Hands on the Arts and Arts and Humanities Month Updates

Kristin Dance, Public Art Management Analyst, presented an update, along with a slideshow, regarding the Hands on the Arts Festival, stating that the festival would be moved to the fall, specifically October 17, 2026, and that the Commission's Hands on the Arts project would be combined with Arts and Humanities Month planning for this cycle.

Kristin presented four project concepts for Commission consideration:

- Sunglasses with optional photo mural
- Service workers honor wall / collage
- Hand tracings on a tree form
- Large-scale puzzle

Commissioners discussed the merits of the projects, including:

- Project uniqueness compared with prior years
- Suitability for younger children
- Whether children could take an item home while also contributing to a larger display
- Display potential after the festival
- Staffing and logistical considerations
- Potential photo release requirements for the sunglasses/photo mural project
- Possibility of incorporating symbolism related to Sunnyvale and Friendship City ties

Commissioners then informally identified the top two project preferences as:

- Hand tracings/tree project
- Sunglasses project

Following discussion, the Commission proceeded to formal action.

MOTION: Commissioner Kauffman moved, and Vice Chair Filley seconded the motion to select the hand tracing project as the Commission's first choice for the October 2026 Hands on the Arts project, with the sunglasses project as the second choice if the first project cannot proceed.

The motion carried with the following vote:
