(I) Meetings

Each board and commission shall hold regular meetings and special meetings as it may require. All meetings shall meet Ralph M. Brown Act requirements and be open to the public (with the exception of certain disciplinary review proceedings of the Personnel Board).

All board and commission meetings shall operate under The Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure, 4th Edition. Should this policy and Parliamentary Procedure conflict, this policy shall take precedence.

(II) Attendance

Each member of a City board or commission is expected to attend all regularly scheduled meetings*, and as many special meetings as possible. When a board or commission member knows in advance that he/she will be absent from a meeting, the member shall give advance notice to the chair and staff liaison.

COUNCIL POLICY MANUAL

The board/commission chair shall, in consultation with the staff liaison, propose that each absence be “excused” or “unexcused.” Each board or commission shall then determine by general consent (or, failing to achieve general consent, by majority vote) their member’s absences from regularly scheduled meetings as excused or unexcused and shall include that record in official meeting minutes. Absences from special meetings shall be recorded but shall not be classified as “excused” or “unexcused.”

Unexcused absences from three consecutive regularly scheduled meetings, or from more than 25% of all regularly scheduled meetings over any consecutive 12-month period, shall result in that member’s seat being declared vacant by the City Clerk. Any declaration of vacancy based on unexcused absence from more than 25% of all regularly scheduled meetings over any consecutive 12-month period shall be appealable to the City Council. (Declarations based on absence from three consecutive regularly scheduled meetings are Charter-based and are not appealable.)

Board and commission members are responsible for monitoring their own attendance records. Staff shall prepare for the City Council semi-annual reports of all the City’s boards and commissions showing the attendance of each member at both regular and special meetings during the past 12 months. The percent of regularly scheduled meetings attended shall only be shown for board and commission members having been in office at least six months.

Council shall take into consideration board and commission member attendance records, including tardiness, when evaluating the overall performance of board and commission members.

Regularly scheduled meetings* are defined as those in alignment with the general description provided the public as to the times that board or commission routinely meets. For example, if the Heritage Preservation Commission is advertised as meeting the first Wednesday of every month, meetings held on these dates only shall be considered “regular meetings.” Any other meetings shall be considered special meetings. Regularly scheduled meeting dates and times for all boards and commissions shall be posted on the City’s Web site and in the Boards and Commissions Handbook.

Excused absences* shall be limited to those which meet both of the following requirements:

- (a) The absent member must have informed the chair and the staff liaison to the board or commission, of their intended absence prior to the scheduled meeting. (Failure to inform the chair and the staff liaison prior to the meeting shall result in an unexcused absence, unless extenuating circumstances prevent advance notice), and

- (b) The absence is due to one of the following:
 - i A death in the family;
 - ii Personal illness;
 - iii Board or commission-related business;
 - iv Personal leave (limited to one per fiscal year for those boards/commissions meeting monthly or less frequently and to 10% of regularly scheduled meetings for those meeting more frequently);
 - v Emergency;
 - vi Decision by member's supervisor in employment or required military service; or

(III) Quorums

Boards and commissions have a quorum present when a majority of their total membership is present. "Total membership" means the number of members indicated in Section 2.A (I) through (VIII); i.e., the Planning Commission has a total membership of seven.

(IV) Majority and Abstentions

Board and commission motions shall be approved by a majority of legal votes cast. Members who fail to vote are presumed to have waived the exercise of their right and to have consented to allow the will of the organization to be expressed by those voting. The tabulation of a vote is based on the number of members present and voting. Abstentions are not counted, since a member who abstains voluntarily relinquishes their vote, and is not counted in the results. (Source: The Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure, 4th Edition)

(V) Ad-hoc Committees

Ad-hoc committees may be established as required to facilitate the study of Council-directed or staff-requested initiatives. These committees will be project-specific and will function only for the duration of the project. The creation of an ad-hoc committee must be included on the meeting agenda to allow the board or commission to discuss and take action regarding the creation of the ad-hoc committee.

minority views as well, including their own. When an official board or commission position differs from staff's recommendation on a particular policy issue, then at the Mayor's discretion additional time may be provided to the chair of the board or commission (or their designee) to explain the position of the board/commission or to rebut statements made by staff or the public. If new information is brought to light during a public hearing which was not shared previously with the board or commission, the Mayor may allow the board or commission chair to respond. If the City Council deems the new information sufficient to warrant additional study, then by majority vote Council may remand the issue back to the board or commission for further study prior to taking other action itself.
