SCOPE OF THE STUDY

What precipitated this Study?

The Heritage Preservation Commission identified the need for an update to the Historical Context Statement to include more thorough information about Asian Americans and other minority groups. An updated document could help to inform the Council on potential heritage and landmark resources that are not currently designated for preservation.

The City Council adopted the Historical Context Statement in 2012, which provides a framework for setting goals, policies and action statements that direct the City’s heritage preservation program. The Historical Context Statement documents different aspects of the historical development of Sunnyvale, such as land use patterns, important events, and architecture. In addition, prominent figures who have contributed to Sunnyvale’s history are included, such as the early Native Americans, Spanish-Mexican settlers, European farmers, and Japanese and Chinese laborers and farmworkers.

What are the key elements of the Study?

The Study would expand on the current Historical Context Statement with more detailed information on contributions made by Asian Americans and other minority groups to Sunnyvale’s rich and diverse history. Research may include a review of existing publications not already referenced in the current Historical Context Statement, meeting with the Sunnyvale Heritage Park Museum staff, and visits to local libraries and the California History Center at De Anza College.

Estimated years to complete study: 1 year
