

Legistar

5049 Glenwood Ct, Pleasanton, CA

94588

510-701-5491

dmjensen@comcast.net

Objective

Interim Position as Chief Information Officer at the local government level.

Experience

City of Sunnyvale
April 2012-Present

Director, Information Technology Department

- Direct oversight of all Information Technology and technical staff
- Technology planning and project development
- Development and management of a detailed Internal Service Fund.

Management Partners Inc.
May 2006- March 2012

Senior Manager

- General management consulting for cities, counties, and special districts including efficiency and effectiveness studies, consolidation analysis, and strategic planning.
- Information technology division organizational assessment, strategic planning, and technology consulting.

City of Fremont
October 1998-May 2006

Chief Technology Officer

- Direct oversight of all Information Technology and technical staff including general administrative, public safety, community development, human services, GIS, and others.
- Responsible for the desk-side support of all information technology.
- Development and management of a detailed Internal Service Fund.
- Oversight of the fleet and building maintenance functions for a year.

City of Fremont
November 1975-October 1998

Police Officer

- Police patrol
- Crime Scene Investigator
- Field Training Officer
- Robbery-Homicide Investigator
- Information Technology Project Manager – CAD/RMS upgrade projects, implementation of first mid-size fleet equipped with laptop computers and data radios
- Interim Chief Technology Officer for the City of Fremont 1995-1998

Education

Cal-State Hayward
October 1971-June 1978

B.S. Biology

- General biological science with some graduate level seminars in physiology.

- Computer programming coursework

Interests

Science and public policy, history, travel, cooking, and gardening.