Assistant Director of Community Development Andy Miner provided the staff report.

Public hearing opened at 8:05 p.m.

William Constantine, Attorney for the Appellants, provided information regarding the court case relating to the conversion impact report and spoke in support of the appeal.

Margaret Nanda, Attorney for the Applicants, provided information regarding the closure of the park and spoke in support of the decision on the application on its merits.

Josh Grossman spoke in support of waiting for the decision on the pending litigation

Richard Mehlinger, speaking on behalf of the Sunnyvale Democratic Club Executive Committee and Liveable Sunnyvale, urged the Council to oppose the redevelopment of the Blue Bonnet Mobile Home Park and to grant the Blue Bonnet Mobile Residents Committee appeal. Mehlinger recommended a project of higher density and more affordable housing, and urged the Council to consider this land for R-3 or R-4 zoning.

John Cordes, BPAC Chair speaking for himself, spoke regarding displacement of low-income residents, the need for protecting affordable housing through the housing element, municipal code or general plan, and recommended either denying the request for the tentative map and requiring a higher density, or not approving it.

Maria Hamilton spoke regarding the 2018 Code of Ethics and Conduct for Elected Officials. Hamilton also spoke regarding sections on the recommended findings of the proposed project and stated that certain sections referred to the General Plan have been replaced in the Land Use and Transportation Element and have not been in existence since April 2017.

Diane Gleason spoke in in opposition to elimination of below market rate housing and spoke in support of increased density in the proposed housing development. Gleason spoke regarding the imbalance of the jobs to housing ratio and the need to reduce additional developments of office space.

Linda Sell, Boardmember on Sunnyvale Democratic Club, speaking on behalf of the Club, recommended overturning the decision, and expressed support for a plan that has more affordable units. Sell stated the Executive Board urges delay of a decision until the litigation has been decided. Speaking on her own behalf, she stated she is a member of the State Democratic Party and the 2018 platform supports sustainable communities that promote smart growth and socially equitable, tenant protections, measures and encourages zoning to promote sustainability and affordability.

Mark Mollineaux spoke regarding the burden of change and requested Council to spread the burden to all members of the community, look at upzoning single family housing to duplexes, and look at how land is managed.

Henry Alexander III spoke regarding past misleading rent control claims, the need for multiple strategies to resolve the housing crisis and protect families from being pushed out of housing, and the importance of rent control protections to prevent the displacement of people of color, seniors and the disabled.

Mason Fong spoke in support of affordable housing and recommended approval of the appeal based on the issue of pending litigation.

Fred Kameda spoke regarding affordable housing for fixed income mobile home owners in Sunnyvale.

Mary Lou Clark, President of Blue Bonnet Residents Committee, spoke regarding the treatment of residents of the Blue Bonnet Mobile Home Park and their need for a legal, fair hearing.

Appellant Will Constantine provided information detailing his disagreement that the CIR and the tentative map are not tied together, and that he believes that it was the Legislature's intent to tie them together. Constantine provided information regarding the comments that a property owner could not be forced to continue to do business as a mobile home park.

Applicant provided information regarding the process of relocation of the tenants of the park.

Public hearing closed at 9:13 p.m.

MOTION: Councilmember Melton moved and Vice Mayor Klein seconded the motion to approve Alternative 1 with a modification: Deny the appeal and affirm the Planning Commission's determination to adopt the Mitigated Negative Declaration and approve the Special Development Permit and Vesting Tentative Map subject to the revised recommended conditions of approval in Attachment 4 of the report, and the modification would be that except for the requested setback deviations for front Elm Court and front East Evelyn Avenue where the applicant would have to work it out with staff.

The motion carried by the following vote:

Regulatory Programs Division Manager Melody Tovar provided the staff report.

Public hearing opened at 11:57 p.m.

Mason Fong requested that CAP 2.0 meetings not be held on the same days as the Valley Transportation Authority Board meetings because it puts citizens in a position to choose between climate and transportation meetings. He also noted that the City of San Jose has an Art Fund under the sustainability program and it pays for installation of art that teaches children how to conserve water, and he would like to see this as a strategy in the CAP 2.0. He also recommended the Council urge the Valley Transportation Authority to expedite its adoption of vehicle miles standard prior to the 2020 timeline.
