Director Bojorquez noted that the Council Budget Workshop is scheduled for Friday, May 25 and that this is an operating budget review year. Director Bojorquez provided the Board with an overview of the FY 2018/19 Library recommended budget. The FY 2018/19 recommended budget includes:

- Allocation of funds for a security guard
- Consolidation of two programs, Technical Services and Administration, into one program

During the event, approximately 40 pounds of medications, 10 mercury thermometers, a bucket of cell phones and one and half buckets of batteries were collected for proper disposal and more than 50 people had their items repaired courtesy of the Repair Café volunteers.
- On Monday, April 30, Columbia Neighborhood Center and the Library held the 3rd Annual Day of the Book/Day of the Child event in North Sunnyvale. Approximately 240 children and adults jumped, sang, and danced with special guest and Latin Grammy Winner, 123 Andres. In addition, every child in attendance received a free book.
- On Tuesday, May 15, and continuing weekly after that, patrons will have access to a Sunnyvale Community Services (SCS) information table on the Library Plaza from 2 to 4 p.m. SCS will be offering patrons with food program referrals, community resources, on-site referral to supportive services and other services.
- Five BluBeams with iBeacon technology have been placed throughout the Library. BluBeam is a combination of software and hardware that makes it easy for the Library to send alerts directly to the patron's smartphone while they are in the building about upcoming programs, new title releases and more based on where they are in the Library. Patrons may then share BluBeam messages with family and friends via Facebook, Twitter, text and email.
- Kanopy, a video streaming platform for libraries, will soon be available at the Library! Kanopy will provide patrons with over 30,000 unique films - one of the largest film databases in the world (5 times the size of Netflix), including top producers such as Criterion Collection, The Great Courses, PBS, Samuel Goldwyn and more. Kanopy's goal is to not only entertain but also educate, enlighten, and inspire. To that end, they feature over 15,000 documentaries, 2,000 foreign films, 9,000 early cinema films, more than 1,500 films targeting K-12 audiences, and local content.
