No: 1 - Councilmember Whittum

Councilmember Hendricks proposed a study issue to take a look at what it takes for Sunnyvale to work with other regional entities to come up with actionable items that the City could implement or specifically advocate for people to be able to find it easier and more affordable to live in Sunnyvale and in the County. Councilmember Larsson co-sponsored the study issue.

Councilmember Whittum stated it would be helpful to understand at the micro-level what actual margins are for small businesses and what we can be expected in the way of business success or failure based on wage movements. Whittum stated it would be good to have facts to be clear that it is actually helping the people intended to help and stated a lot of the facts are missing and requested accurate data.

Councilmember Hendricks requested the study issue paper include the kind of data and facts Councilmember Whittum requested.

Councilmember Whittum stated anecdotal or sampling type information based on interviews with small businesses if they're willing to be frank about their revenues to understand the distribution of the level of revenue, percent of labor costs and the margin leftover.

Council recessed at 8:59 p.m.

Council reconvened at 9:14 p.m. with all Councilmembers present.
